participants attended an online workshop on creating the frontend of decentralized applications (DApps) and integrating them with Taquito.js, a JavaScript library for Tezos.

The period from 25th to 27th June was reserved for project building, allowing participants to develop their ideas using the skills they had acquired. The hackathon concluded on 28th June 2023 with a 12-hour offline event at Hansraj College. During the final day, participants showcased their projects and received event merchandise, including T-shirts, cups, caps, stickers, and food.

This collaboration between Tezos India, the TI Club at Hansraj College, and Ordinateur provided participants with a comprehensive learning experience, allowing them to apply their newfound knowledge in Web3 development.
