Organised by: समन्वय – The B.A. Programme Departmental Society

Date of the Event: Independence Day Week

Duration/Event Timing: Online-based submissions

Venue of the Event: Online

Name of Convener: Dr. Preeti Rani

Description:

समन्वय: The B.A. Programme Society of Hansraj College successfully organised a speaker session on the topic: Healing in Context: Socio-Economic and Cultural Aspects of Well-being.

The session was graced by the esteemed guest speaker Ms. Sreepriya Menon, Co-Founder of SWARI Foundation, Psychiatric Social Worker, and Researcher. The event began with a welcome address and formal introduction of the speaker by the Convener. In her address, Ms. Sreepriya Menon emphasised the importance of mental well-being and explained how socio-economic conditions and cultural backgrounds significantly influence the process of healing. She shared valuable insights from her professional experience and highlighted the need for inclusive and culturally sensitive approaches to mental health.

The session was interactive, with students actively participating and asking insightful questions. The speaker patiently addressed the queries and encouraged open discussion, making the session engaging and informative. The feedback from the
