Name of the Event – ICC Seminar

Date of the Event – 31/08/2018

Women Development Cell, Hansraj College organised a seminar on the Internal Complaints Committee (ICC) on 31st August, 2018.

Aimed at creating awareness about the existence of ICC, its importance, and the working procedure followed, the seminar was given by eminent personalities, experts in their respective fields.

The panel consisted of Japleen Pasricha, founder and editor-in-chief of Feminism In India; Dr. Meenakshi Malhotra, Associate professor in the English department of Hansraj College; Niraali, an undergraduate pursuing Literature and a part of ICC, Hansraj; and Vibhuti, a third year History (Hons) student and member of Pinjratod, as well as the ICC representative of SGTB Khalsa College.

The seminar commenced with a presentation which included conclusions and results of the survey done by WDC on ICC and its awareness.

ICC is framed for receiving complaints of sexual harassment. It is mandatory to form ICC at educational institutions or workplaces with atleast 10 working employees for safety and security against sexual harassment.

WDC thanks all the panelists and student who joined us in seminar and hope that it was successful in sowing seeds of ICC and about its working.
