The Entrepreneurial Cell

Name of the Event – Power2Idea

Date of the Event – 25/2/2018

Convenor: Dr. Mona Bhatnagar

The Entrepreneurial Cell of Hansraj College organised Power2Idea, an event that was aimed at increasing the creativity and critical thinking skills of the youth. The event was organised during the tenure of 2017-18 by Ecell Hansraj in collaboration with Innolabz, an organisation that aims at bridging the gap between an individual's career path. The event was held in the college premises itself and served as a huge ice-breaker for the college students who do not get the clarity between whether to follow conventional career paths or muster the courage and follow the unconventional ones that aim at creating an impact in the society.

The event was attended by an outpouring number of attendees and the timings were kept in between college hours so that the benefits of the event could reach the maximum number of the youth who are willing to take up entrepreneurship as their career trajectory. Ms.Rama, the Principal of Hansraj College was highly impressed with the coordination and flow of the entire event. The entire teaching staff was also impressed with the initiative taken up by the Entrepreneurial Cell of Hansraj College and motivated the council to take up similar events in the future as well.

Entrepreneurial Cell

Name of the Event – Business Timecoon

Date of the Event – 28/05/2018

Convenor: Dr. Mona Bhatnagar

Business Timecoon was one of the most prestigious events organised by The Entrepreneurial Cell of Hansraj. This event was specially curated to foster the spirit of entrepreneurship and business values in budding entrepreneurs. With the support of the biggest telecom service provider in India, Airtel, E-cell Hansraj became the flag bearer of supporting the cause of educating the youth about business and the importance of grasping opportunities. The entire north campus witnessed the presence of some inspirational business leaders who have changed the world with their abundant knowledge, wisdom and experience. The aim of the event was to reiterate and celebrate the efforts and contributions of the biggest business tycoons of the time. With an emphasis on the importance of skills, time management and innovation, The Entrepreneurial Cell of Hansraj presented an opportunity for start-up enthusiasts to watch, learn and grow in the tricky world of business. With the able guidance of our teachers and principal, the entire team of E-cell was able to pull off this event successfully. The endearing support from Airtel helped us bridge the gap between experienced leaders and passionate learners, just like the telecom provider bridges the communication and networking gap between millions of people.

The Entrepreneurial Cell

Name of the Event – Education Summit

Date of the Event – 18/04/2018

Convenor: Dr. Mona Bhatnagar

The Entrepreneurial Cell of Hansraj College organised an Education Summit in collaboration with ICICI in 2017-18. The purpose of the event was to inform the general public about the fundamentals of entrepreneurship, especially college-age students, about the value of having an entrepreneurial spirit. With more than 900 attendees throughout the course of the three days, the event attracted a sizable number of participants from around Delhi University. The two-day summit featured various speaker sessions from well-known business leaders trying to create a society that values its citizens as much as economic prosperity. To improve the attendees' critical thinking skills and provide them with a starting point for their entrepreneurial path, the summit also featured case-solving competitions relating to entrepreneurship and start-up culture in addition to speaker sessions from various industry professionals. With several incentives, awards, and prizes—but most importantly, networking chances for both businesses and non-entrepreneurs—the event was held with great passion and success. The summit provided everyone with a chance to learn. Both the cell convenor, Ms Madhavi Moni, and the principal of Hansraj College, Ms Rama, were extremely supportive of the event throughout and were very pleased with its success in advancing not just Ecell Hansraj but also Hansraj College.

Negocio is the annual B-plan competition of the Entrepreneurial Cell of Hansraj College, wherein students from all over India are provided with the opportunity to present their ideas in front of a panel of angel investors and venture capitalists. The competition consisted of two rounds- an online round and an offline round. In the online round, students were required to fill in basic details about their ventures, including their financial models, business plans and future goals. The event witnessed significant traction of students having a keen interest in building a start-up, from the ideation stage to its final execution. After scrutinizing and analysing the responses from the online round, 10-15 teams were shortlisted on the grounds of innovation, uniqueness, and financial feasibility of their proposed venture. The selected teams presented their creative, innovative and rational ideas in front of the panel of esteemed investors. Negocio proved to be an amazing opportunity for start-up enthusiasts and budding entrepreneurs as they were facilitated with a platform to accelerate their dreams and ideas. The Entrepreneurial Cell of Hansraj College served as a bridge to connect these young entrepreneurs to esteemed and experienced angel investors and venture capitalists. The event witnessed the networking of like-minded people along with the overall growth of the start-up ecosystem.
