Equal Opportunity Cell and Enabling Unit, Hansraj College celebrated #Alzheimer's Day the #International_Day_of_Sign_Languages through a guest speaker session on "inclusive Environment in Higher Education" and a Movie Screening of Award Winning movie "Black". This event was held on September 27th, 2019, and started from 12:45 PM onwards in the auditorium of Hansraj College.

The event began with mesmerizing Sarswati Vandana sung by Brijendra (General Secretary, Enabling Unit). The melody filled all the audience and the guest of honor with euphoria. After a warm welcome, the guest of honor Mr. K.C Pandey (Executive Secretary) Blind Relief Association was given a token of love to spread peace and happiness by Dr. Rajesh Kumar Sharma (Convener) Equal Opportunity Cell, Dr. Shivani Agarwal (Coordinator), Enabling Unit, Suman (President EOC) and Sandeep (President EU). An Introductory speech was given by Dr. Shivani Agarwal describing the humility and benevolence of our guest of honor. Following this, a speech was given by K. C Pandey throwing light on the importance of Awareness and building up such helping blocks for the disabled. He described his life journey and how he contributed his part to others.

This was followed by the enlightening words of Dr. Rajesh Kumar Sharma on the creation of an inclusive environment. After that, the students relished the movie. The movie beautifully manifested the tale of a girl from the path of darkness to light. The movie was indeed an eye-opener for all. The event ended with the appreciation of the toiling efforts of all the members and the patient audience.
