Educational Trip to Manav Rachna University

Convener of the Society - Dr. Santosh Hasnu

Description of the Trip :

समन्वय : The B.A. Programme Society of Hansraj College successfully organised a bootcamp trip to Manav Rachna University , Faridabad where students gained insights into various career choices.

The trip aimed to make the students aware of different career choices that they can go for in future.

The students were safely transported to the University in a bus provided by the college. As all the students reached the University , they were briefed by the University management about how they would be participating in the bootcamp. After that , every student joined the bootcamp in the fields like Law, Media, Liberal Arts, Psychology, Management etc.

Students participated in brainstorming sessions with the faculty and explored the University campus. They took part in debates , group discussions and gained deep insights into the functioning of different branches of the University. At the conclusion of the bootcamp , all the students were provided with snacks and brochures by the University.

Students had a very positive experience and acknowledged that the trip was beneficial in helping them make clearer career choices .They also expressed their willingness to join such bootcamps again in the future.

The students' safety was ensured throughout the trip, and all the students were picked up from the college directly and safely transported back home after the trip.

At the end , Society President Aadarsh Kumar Kherol , on the behalf of the society expressed his gratitude to all the students for their enthusiastic and disciplined participation.
