NAAC ACCREDITED 'A++' GRADE COLLEGE

On 24th January 2023, Hansraj College hosted the Y20 India Talks, in collaboration with Y20 India Secretariat and Confederation of Young Leaders. The event was carried out in a packed auditorium brimming with the vigour of youth. It was inaugurated with the singing of the national anthem, followed by the DAV anthem, and the Pavamana Mantra by Swaranjali, the music society of the prestigious college. The audience was graced with the presence of a distinguished panel consisting of Chief Guest and Keynote Speaker Padma Vibhushan Dr. Sonal Mansingh; Shri Shehzad Poonawalla, National Spokesperson, BJP; Ambassador Shri Shashank, IFS, 25th Foreign Secretary of India; Ambassador Shri Anil Trigunayat, IFS, President, MIICCI&A, Former Indian Ambassador; Shri Abhishek Malhotra, Secretary, Partnership and Finance, Y20 India Secretariat; and finally Shri Rajiv Chawla, Chairman, IamSMEofIndia, who returned in a sweet homecoming after 40 years, as an alumnus of the college. Shri Priyank Chauhan, Special Coordinator, Y20 India Secretariat presented the theme of the Y20 India Talks.

Addressing India's ongoing development in her welcome remarks, Prof. Rama, the Principal, noted that "ab toh samay hai 24 ghante kaam karne ka" (it's is the time to work 24x7). She also emphasized that India getting G20 presidency is a landmark event and it will be remembered as a very special time in Indian history.

The highlight of the event was of course when the graceful Dr. Sonal Mansingh ascended the podium. She spoke on how the message of Y20 reaches beyond the youth to the society, and emphasized that overdependence on technology should be avoided. She also explained the five qualities that students must nurture such as doggedness, focus, awareness, fitness and selective disinterestedness so that they can thrive in their academic pursuits. She also highlighted the 'need to include India's intangible heritage and its diverse art and culture in the Y20 theme'.

The panel on Future of Work: Industry 4.0, Innovation and 21st Century Skills

Shri Shahzad Poonawalla gave the opening remarks in the panel discussion describing India's G20 Presidency as revolutionary. India's 25th Foreign Secretary Shri Shashank, Ambassador Anil Trigunayat, Shri Abhishek Malhotra and Shri Rajeev Chawla discussed the needs of the industry and shared their visions about the challenges in India and the way forward. The panel focused on fourth industrial revolution marked by automation and artificial intelligence and the panelists shared their industry knowledge and experience. Finally during the question and answer phase many relevant and useful suggestions and points were taken and shared from the students. Post the interactive session the event concluded with the singing of 'Jana Gana Mana.'

Event was attended by more than 300 students and faculty members.
