This certificate course has been uniquely designed for undergraduate and postgraduate students of Humanities and Social Sciences with three main aims:

- To provide a clear, conceptual and practical framework for writing academic answers, informative pieces and research articles by acquainting candidates with the tools and protocols of academic writing;
- To familiarize students with current research methodologies in Economics, History, Sociology, Literature and Political Science, and the use of innovative approaches for interdisciplinary research;
- To broaden critical vistas and signpost new paths for research by introducing recent interdisciplinary work that challenges disciplinary boundaries.

Students will learn from scholars who have extensive research experience in their disciplines from universities and institutions across the globe. Through intensive two-hour lectures, scholars will focus on various aspects within each of the three modules. This comprehensive 32- hour online certificate course will serve as a launch pad for students interested in research and higher studies. By the end of the course students will have first-hand knowledge and familiarity with:

- literature survey and documentation;
- data collection, analysis, argument and hypothesis;
- research ethics, plagiarism and research guidelines;
- publication: avenues and processes;
- research methodology across the humanities and social sciences;
- cutting-edge research in various fields.

At the end of the course, students will be tested on their knowledge and awarded completion certificates from the Student Learning Centre, Hansraj College, University of Delhi.

- Registration will be online. Since we have limited seats, early registration is encouraged to confirm participation.

Deadline for registration and payment of fees:

31st December 2021.
