

ALUMNI FEEDBACK SURVEY RESULTS

2022-2023

An alumni feedback form was used to assess and interpret the experience of the students passing out of Hansraj College. The exercise aimed to understand how relevant and helpful was the curriculum in preparing them for the real world. 17 questions were asked of which five questions (charts A to E) were asked with a 4-point scale, aimed at determining the relevance of curriculum to employability, skill enhancement, entrepreneurial skill development, logical thinking and practical application and the remaining questions aimed at evaluating their experience at college.

The results indicate positive response with scope for further improvement. Of the 57 respondents, 81% of the respondents agreed that curriculum inculcated and encouraged innovative thinking and logic in them, 74% agreed and strongly agreed that the syllabus for their course is relevant for employability; approximately 72% agreed that the current syllabus is in line with contemporary and relevant industry practices and developments. 56% have found the curriculum to be effective in developing entrepreneurial skills. 77% have agreed that the syllabus included relevant skill enhancement subjects.
