NAAC ACCREDITED 'A++' GRADE COLLEGE

Parents' Feedback Survey Results (2024-2025)

Parents' feedback was gathered for the Academic Year 2024-2025, assessing various parameters on a five-point scale, where 5 signifies highly favourable, 4 represents favourable, 3 denotes satisfactory, and 1–2 indicate below-average to unfavourable. A total of 113 parents responded to the survey. The figures below reflect the percentage of respondents rating each parameter 3 (satisfactory) or above, unless otherwise stated.

Key Findings

Parents expressed considerable pride in their children studying at Hansraj College: 92.0% rated their sense of parental pride as satisfactory or better, and a similar 92.0% found the college environment conducive to teaching and learning. 91.2% gave a satisfactory-or-better overall assessment of what their ward is gaining from the College, and 89.4% viewed the discipline practices implemented in the College favourably.

88.5% of parents observed noticeable development in their ward's overall personality since joining the College, and a similar 88.5% acknowledged the College's sensitivity towards changing educational, social, and market demands. On curriculum-related outcomes, 85.0% of parents felt the College succeeds in providing value-based education, 82.3% found that the College facilitates self-study and a genuine orientation towards research, and 78.8% recognised its role in promoting logical and critical thinking.

Learning resources including internet access, library resources, and computer availability were rated satisfactory or better by 83.2% of parents, and 81.4% acknowledged adequate provisions for enhancing technical knowledge and communication skills. The College's system for monitoring student progress was viewed satisfactorily or better by 77.9% of respondents, indicating a generally positive perception with some scope to further strengthen communication of progress updates to parents.

Total respondents: 113. Rating scale: 1 (Not at all, minimum, unfavourable) to 5 (Greatly, maximum, very favourable).

Summary

Overall, parents expressed strong pride and satisfaction with their ward's experience at Hansraj College, particularly around personality development, discipline, and the overall value of the education provided. Communication around student-progress monitoring and technical/communication-skill provisions have been identified as areas where the College will continue to strengthen its outreach to parents.
