Report:-

Institution's Innovation council Hansraj College, in collaboration with National Service Scheme (NSS) unit of Hansraj College, organized the celebration of World Creativity and Innovation Day on 21st April 2025 offline mode. The program was coordinated by Dr. Apoorva Gupta, NSS Programme Officer, Hansraj College. The resource person of the session was Dr. Ambika, IIC Convenor, Hansraj College. The session was attended majorly by first year students of the college. The session aimed at making students aware about the importance of creative and innovative thinking, not just in academics, but also in real world applications. Innovative business ideas were discussed with the students. Students were also made aware about various ways to handle organic waste, e-waste, and inorganic waste. They were informed about patents, its utility and applications. We believe that the session was informative for the students. The students were emphasised that each one of us should think innovatively to handle our problems and to solve real world challenges in innovative ways for the development of mankind.
