Event Description

The Hansraj Entrepreneurial Case Challenge, a flagship event of E-Summit 2025, was a high-stakes, multi-round competition aimed at identifying the most innovative, analytical, and strategic minds among school and college students. Open to students from class 10th to postgraduates, the event welcomed diverse talents from across institutions, including cross-college teams.

Spanning three rigorous rounds, the challenge began with the Preliminary Round, an eliminative stage that tested participants on practicality, creativity, and quantitative aptitude through multiple case scenarios. Only those who successfully "cracked the case" advanced to the next level.

The Intermediate Round took the challenge a step further with a complex case study. Teams were required to submit a solution in the form of a pitch deck presentation. These decks were evaluated by a panel of domain experts, and the top 8 teams with the most compelling analysis and presentation moved on to the finals.

The journey culminated in the Final Round, conducted offline, where the top teams presented their refined strategies before a panel of esteemed judges. The session included a rigorous Q&A round, providing a platform for feedback and deeper discussion—marking the final battle for the coveted champion's title.

The event served as a unique opportunity for aspiring entrepreneurs and problem-solvers to test their mettle, learn from industry experts, and showcase their strategic thinking on a
