Name of the Event 3: Workshop with Youth 4 Jobs

Date of the Event: 18th March, 2021

On the 18th of March, 2021, the Enabling Unit of Hansraj College in collaboration with Youth 4 Jobs Foundation orchestrated an online career guidance workshop for individuals with disabilities. The workshop was attended by nearly 100 participants. Its agenda majorly shed light on two aspects. The former focused on essential skills required for employment and the latter talked about vacancies in IT, banks, BPOs, and e-commerce companies.

The seminar commenced at 11:30 AM on the platform Zoom. It was chaired by the Principal of Hansraj College, Dr. Rama, convenor of Equal Opportunity Cell, Hansraj College, Dr. Baljeet Kaur, the Coordinator of Enabling Unit, Hansraj College, Mr. Arun Kumar. A presentation was displayed throughout the session by the trainers at Youth 4 Jobs, Mr. Md. Imran and Ms. Roohi Najjiya. The conversation began with a brief introduction to Youth 4 Jobs Foundation where in we talked about the training academy of the foundation which takes place in four sets, namely, digital, banking, language and aptitude training. It progressed with a discussion on industrial expectations at the entry, intermediate and advanced levels. To add to this, the participants were informed about the admission process and course duration.

Since the workshop was particularly designed for persons with disability, to help them comprehend better, a sign language interpreter, Miss. Nitika translated everything for them. Further, the speaker talked about the foundation's employers, for instance HDFC bank, Air BNB, Amazon among others. Concepts like salaries, selection process and eligibility criteria were touched upon.

As the event culminated, the audience asked questions which were taken up by the speakers. The workshop saw the participation of not only individuals with disability but also of the students from Equal Opportunity Cell. It was an engaging and informative session.

In the end, the Coordinator of Enabling Unit, Mr. Arun Kumar expressed his gratitude and thanked the trainers as well as the audience.
