NAAC ACCREDITED 'A++' GRADE COLLEGE

Name of the Event: Aspects of Measuring Light

Date of the Event: 22nd February, 2024

Department of Physics and Electronics, Hansraj College in association with Viksit Bharat Ambassador Club, Hansraj College, organized a captivating seminar centred around the aspects of measuring light. Dr. Shibu Saha, a distinguished senior scientist from CSIR-NPL Laboratory, graced the occasion as the esteemed guest speaker. The seminar aimed to elucidate the intricacies of metrology, shed light on the fundamental principles of photometry and showcase cutting-edge instruments at NPL. Key highlights are unravelling metrology's significance, delving into Photometry and showcasing NPL's Advanced Instrumentation. A highlight of the seminar was the captivating showcase of state-of-the-art instruments housed at the esteemed CSIR-NPL Laboratory. Dr. Saha provided attendees with a first-hand glimpse into the cutting-edge equipment utilized in metrological research and application. Through interactive demonstrations, participants witnessed the transformative potential of advanced measurement technologies. The seminar culminated in a stimulating interactive session, where attendees actively participated in discussions and posed insightful questions to Dr. Shibu Saha.

The Physics & Electronics Society, Hansraj College in collaboration with Indian Association of Physics Teachers RC-1 is organizing a seminar on
